

HM Customs and Excise Declaration of Dutiable Goods

The Collector HM Customs and Excise

I arrived today from .....

on **flight number/ship*..... and declare the following goods which are:

- in addition to the duty-free allowances shown on the Customs notices displayed;

| Goods                                      | Brands | Quantity                |
|--|--------|-------------------------|
| Cigarettes, cigars, tobacco                |        |                         |
| Spirits, liqueurs                          |        |                         |
| Wine                                       |        |                         |
| Perfume, toilet water                      |        |                         |
| Other goods(including make, type, etc) | Cost   | Where and when obtained |
|  |        |                         |
|  |        |                         |

- subject to prohibition or restriction on importation into the United Kingdom; namely .....
- I undertake not to dispose of these goods to other persons without prior notification to the Collector of Customs and Excise at the place of importation.

* I am normally resident in the United Kingdom.

* I am normally resident in ..... and will be staying in the United Kingdom until .....

Signature .....

Full name and address in UK
(Please use BLOCK LETTERS)
.....
.....
.....

Date

|     |       |      |
|-----|-------|------|
|     |       |      |
| Day | Month | Year |

*Delete as appropriate

Data Protection Act 1998

HM Customs and Excise collects information in order to administer the taxes for which it is responsible (such as VAT, insurance premium tax, excise duties, air passenger duty, landfill tax), and for detecting and preventing crime.

Where the law permits we may also get information about you from third parties, or give information to them, for example in order to check its accuracy, prevent or detect crime or protect public funds in other ways. These third parties may include the police, other government departments and agencies.