Data Protection Act 1998

HM Revenue and Customs collects information in order to administer the taxes for which it is responsible (such as VAT, insurance premium tax, excise duties, air passenger duty, landfill tax, climate change levy), and for detecting and preventing crime. Where the law permits we may also get information about you from third parties, or give information to them, for example in order to check its accuracy, prevent or detect crime or protect public funds in other ways. These third parties may include the police, other government departments and agencies.

Note: You should submit Form C81 in respect of any items not relating directly to CAP export refund (including any change to the quantity).
